World-class facility currently under construction in San Francisco’s dynamic South of Market district, highly accessible by public transportation

Flexible learning environments will support small-group learning and include state-of-the-art simulation and research labs, communal areas and study spaces

Redesigned clinical areas with improved patient privacy and eight student group practices will more closely resemble private dental clinics

Sustainable design will earn the campus LEED Gold certification

Expanded space for University of the Pacific programs and events

www.dental.pacific.edu/plans